

Border

Aufgaben:

1. Fill in the gaps with the right words!
2. Scan the QR code to check your answers!
3. Copy the text in your exercise book!
4. Formulate the content of the text yourself!

Use all gap words!

A border is where something ends and something new begins. Usually, when you think of a _____ you think of a border between two different areas. That can be a border between two _____, for example, Germany and Austria.

If you travel from Germany to _____, you cross an international border. You are not in the German territory anymore, where German _____ apply, but in Austrian territory, where you need to follow Austrian rules. _____ and Austria are both part of the European Union. A lot of laws apply to both _____. People can easily travel between both countries.

On other borders, the _____ watches who or what crosses the border. Maybe criminals are trying to escape from the _____. In foreign countries, the police can't chase them anymore, unless they ask the police in the other _____ for help. Many states don't want goods to get in without being regulated because in some countries, _____ are cheaper than in others. Meat is cheaper in Germany than in _____. If you bring a big amount of meat from Germany to Switzerland, you need to pay for _____.

goods countries Switzerland countries customs Germany Austria country state laws police border